MEDICINAL

A noted London club man once laid a ager with a friend that the latter could wager with a friend that the latter cound not sell a given number of gold guineas at a penny a piece. He won his wager. The people refused to buy. They thought he was offering too much for too little. It may be that the claims made for Whayorite Pression. no claim is made for "Favorite Prescription" which is not substantiated by thousands of women cured by its use. Its effects are truly wonderful. It wipes out past years of pain as a sponge wipes a slate.

Favorite Prescription is the great medicine for women. It establishes regularity, dries enfeebling drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and and ulceration and cures female weakness. It is the best preparative for maternity, making the baby's advent practically painless.

"When I wrote to you in March, asking advice as to what to do for myself," says Mrs. Ella Reynolds, of Guffle, McLean Co., Ky., "I was sick all of the time. Had been sick for several months. Could not get anything to stay in my atomach, not even water. Had mishaps twice in six months, and threatening all the time with this one. Had female weakness for several years. My hips, back and lower bowels hurt me all the time. Had numbness from my hips down. Had several hard cramping spells, and was not able to do any work at all. I received your answer in a few days, telling me to take Dr. Pierce's Paworite Prescription. I took three bottles, and before I had taken it a week I was able to help do my work. On the 2th of May my baby was born, and I was only sick three hours, and had an easy time.

"We praise Dr. Pierce's medicine for it has cured me."

MRS PAGET TO DAZZLEGOTHAM The London correspondent of the New York World says:

Mrs. Arthur Paget gave a small farewell dinner to the Prince of Wales on Sunday night. The company invited to meet the Prince included Lord Roberts, Countess Howe (formerly Ledy Sarah Wilson) and Mr. and Mis. George Keppel.

Mrs. Paget has brought some beauti-ful Worth and Callot frocks from Paris fur Worth and Callot Proces from Faria for her brief American visit. One is a Worth orange-colored velvet dress, embroid-red with silver, recalling her famous portrait by Constant.
Another Worth costume is pale blue velvet, with exquisite old lace.

From Callot she got a restsurant dress, embroodered with gold, high to the throat, the sleeves tight at the el-bowe, with smple bishop sleeves of Another is of white satin, embroidered with emeralds, with which she can wear her emeralds and diamonds. Among her opera closks is one of pale blue velvet, bordered with sable. Another is of white cloth trimmed with rmine.

She is already knee-deep with American invitations, but will return to London in March, going straight to the R viers. Her daughter, Lula, instead of going to New York, is joining a party, chiefly of young people, the Pony Drexe's have made up for a trip to the West Indies on their new palatial seam yacht, which is considered the mest perfectly contrived and luxurious thating pleasure-house Watson has ever turned out. From the West Indies the yacht will sail to the Mediterranean, taking aboard Mrs. Paget, Lord and Lady De Grey, Miss Yzoaga ard there, at Cannes, where all the smart et are going this winter, for a cruise to Corsica, Naples and Soily.

POLITE DIAMOND THIEF. A gentlemanly burglar made a rich asul at the home of F. W. Stillwagon, teller of the City National Bank, at Niles, Ohio, yesterday morning. Mr. tillwagon was awakened by his wife, who said she was sure someone was in

"But don't get up," he continued, as Stillwagon started in amazement.
"The fire has gone out, you know, and he room is swfully cold."
"But he way" continued the rollic.

"The ANNUAT. ELECTION OF OFFI. "Your wife is right," came a laugh-

"By the way," continued the polite "By the way," continued the polite ourgler, "j's; stretch your hands out in the bid spread, both of you, and keep them there. That's right. It would make me so theasy, you know, if you fumbled about under your pillows. Haven't a gut? Well, well! That is too bad."

With this the cool burglar took from Mrs. Sillwagon's fingers two beautiful diamond rings and an opal ring from he hand of the banker. Picking up diamond ring and an oparing from the hand of the banker. Picking up S. illwagon's trousers he reached into the peckets. "Say, what kind of a banker are you, anybow? Only $2 in your trousers? Well, it you wouldn't take a fellow ack. Bah!" And he tossed the trousers under the bed.

"Oh, ho," he continued, "aouldn't it bave been a pity to bave overlooked this drawer of rings. This is certainly a nice assortment, I thought I got all the rings. And those are good dismonds, too, or I'm no judge. Lady, I thank you. These are new stick pios, too. I have a friend who will appreciate them, and they'd be lonesome here. Now, that is too pretty a watch for a lady to carry. Monogram, hey? Not the right one."

The burglar toesed the watch back into the bed, bade Mr. and Mrs. Stillwagon good morning and left the house, locking the door and taking the key with him.

To KILL OFF MOLQUITORS -A dispatch from Havana says: Owing to the results of the recent yellow fever experiments the department is beginning an active campaign against mosquitoes, which it has been shown convey disease. The forty sanitary inspectors of the city have been ordered to make a through inspection of their d strices, and to report all stagnant water where mosquitoes might breed. The paper of the people, for the people and with the people. Honest in motive, fearless in expression and sound in principle.

The Sun is the highest type of a newspaper. The Sun's special correspondents throughout the United States, as well as in Furope, South Africe, Chine and, in isact, sil over the world, make it as un-to-date newspaper.

The market reports and commercial features put the farmer, the merchant and the braker in close touch with the markets at Bilimore, Norfolk, Coarleston, New York, Unicego, Pniladelphia and other places which are prominent centres.

From now on the news of the world promises to be more interesting than ever before, and national and political questions will arise, making probably the most evenful period in the country's history.

This, together with the corps of editors and reportures at Baltimore, Washington and New York, make the Sun invaluable to its resders.

Two editions of the paper are pre-eminently suited for Southern reading—the Weekly and the Tri-Weekly.

The Weekly, issued every Thursday, is a compact rews, agricultural and family paper, unexcelled for cultivators of the soil and their semilies. Its market reports have given that edition a special reputation. Numerous special departments are prejected and maraged so as to attract every household and all the members thereof. Several half-tone pictures appear in each number. Price, $1 a year.

The Tri-Weekly, printed Monday, Wednesday and Friday, is a handsome, spirited and condensed every-other-day daily newspaor—easily the best publication of its class in the United states. It has all the special features of the Weekly and the important news of the Daily, such is printed and miled at the asme time as the Daily. The news—clear, securate and fairly presented—is admirably displayed according to its value, and is never distoried. For political news you cannot find any better newspaper, and the news is given without any political bias. The editorial page breathes the spirit of purest patrictism and hondest charity, untainted by any consideration saye the welfare of the home and the country. Its reviews are puneent, wise and witty. The Tri-Weekly, $1.50 a year. Sample copies free.
